Internship Posting

REVShare

Description of the internship

Founded in 1989, privately-held REVShare® specializes in Cost-per-Action (CPA) television advertising. Reaching 110 million U.S. households, REVShare has relationships with more than 1,500 combined English and Spanish local market television stations, cable systems, syndicators, and networks that are willing to provide television time on a results basis. With a customer-oriented team, proven client results, state-of-the-art technology and marketing acumen, REVShare continues to lead the industry in the evolution of television advertising models to meet the challenges of the next generation of convergence and interactivity.

We are looking for an intern to support administrative needs of management as well as reps per direction of Sales Manager. This may include filing, errands for office supplies, calendar bookings, appt set up for calls or meetings with clients, meeting notes, research projects and other tasks along the lines of administrative support. The job will report to our office in Temecula, CA.
